

ANZASW

Working with Cultural Diversity Workshop

Need training to demonstrate competency to work with different ethnic and cultural groups?

Then this course is for YOU!

This 2 day workshop will enable you to participate in a supportive and rewarding learning experience.

Auckland

Wesley Community Centre, Mt Roskill.

Tues 3rd & Wed 4th October
9.30am - 4pm

Wellington

St Johns in the City, Willis St.

Mon 16th & Tues 17th October
9.30pm—4pm

Facilitated by Susan Elliott , MSc (Hons) Development Practice, B Ed. Trainer in Human rights & Social Justice.

Attendees will engage in learning that enables them to demonstrate competence to:

- engage with a range of people in culturally appropriate ways and in an inclusive manner;
- recognise and support diversity among groups and individuals;
- articulate how the wider context of Aotearoa New Zealand both historically and currently can impact on practice

More details....

Working with Cultural Diversity 2 day Workshop, lunch & refreshments included:

$420.00

ANZASW Members

$504.00

Non—Members

Special Offer!

BONUS: Attend this workshop PLUS our Competency to Work with Māori workshop for just...

$999.00

ANZASW Members

$1199.00

Non-Members

(includes one year ANZASW membership, if applicable)

Register Now! Places strictly limited.

<https://anzasw.wufoo.eu/forms/cultural-competency-workshops/>

ANZASW is the professional body for Social Workers in Aotearoa New Zealand. We enhance the profession of social work through a range of services, including Indemnity cover and professional development, so that whānau, hapū, iwi, individuals, families and communities, benefit from the highest level of advocacy and care.

