This policy statement is based on the Social Workers Registration Act 2003 (the Act).

1. Introduction

The Social Workers Registration Act (2003) requires the Social Workers Registration Board to establish clear criteria for the registration of social workers. Section 11 of the Act permits the following conditions for temporary registration of social workers:

- (1) A person registered temporarily:
 - (a) must always be registered subject to restrictions relating to the institution or place where he or she intends to practise social work; and
 - (b) may also be registered subject to conditions, other restrictions, or both.
- (2) The duration of any period of temporary registration of a person (or of any period for which a person's temporary registration is renewed):
 - (a) must be no more than 6 months; and
 - (b) must be such that, when it is added to the duration of any previous period or periods of limited registration of the person, the total is no more than 3 years.

Section 15 of the Act lists the criteria for temporary registration:

The Board must decide that the applicant should be registered temporarily if, and only if, satisfied that he or she -

- (a) is a fit and proper person to practise social work; and
- (b) can speak and write English reasonably effectively, and understand spoken and written English reasonably well; and
- (c) is or will be visiting New Zealand temporarily, and wishes to practise social work at a particular institution or place in New Zealand; and
- (d) has enough knowledge and practical experience of social work to practise social work at the institution or place.
