

Practising Certificate declaration

I _____, Registered Social Worker, am applying for my Practising Certificate from 1 July 2019 to 30 June 2020. I make this declaration, honestly believing the same to be true.

I declare that, as a practising social worker:

- I have a record of professional supervision and a Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Log undertaken last year;
- I will undertake regular professional supervision;
- I will undertake professional development activities and will keep a CPD Log;
- I will notify the Social Workers Registration Board of concerns with my competence to practice as a social worker; and
- I am not aware of any concerns with my mental or physical health, which may affect my ability to perform social work.

I am not currently, nor have I been since I last applied for a Practising Certificate:

- the subject of any professional disciplinary proceedings in New Zealand or overseas;
- under investigation in New Zealand or overseas for any matter that could become the subject of professional disciplinary proceedings;
- under investigation for any criminal offence;
- convicted of a criminal offence; or
- the respondent of a protection order, trespass order, restraining order or similar in New Zealand or overseas.

If you cannot declare all of the information to be true below, please contact us on 0508 797 269 to discuss your situation.
